Dear Mr. Tchang,

7th International Conference on Legislation Concerning Veterans and Victims of War Paris, 24-26 November 2010

I have the honour to inform you that the 7th international Conference on Legislations Concerning Veterans and Victims of War will be held in Paris at the UNESCO building (room XI) on 24-26 November 2010. The Conference will conclude with the celebration of the 60th anniversary of the WVF on 26 November.

The objectives and the composition of the WVF are explained in the enclosed leaflet.

We have the pleasure to invite you to attend this conference, or to send your representative.

According to the Rules of Procedure, representatives of veterans associations which are not members of the WVF may participate at the conference as observers.

You will find enclosed the agenda, programme and rules of procedure for the Conference, as well as the Registration Form, which should be returned to us before 30 July 2010.

As the six previous conferences have proved, the exchange of views and the propositions made by governments and veterans associations have resulted in improvements in the services provided to veterans and victims of war, without necessarily implying increases in budgetary spending. Such advances are demonstrated in the document "Guidelines to Basic Rights for War Veterans and Victims of War", which you will find enclosed.

Contemporary wars and the tragic events that occur on all the continents lead us to believe that it is useful today to review the situation of veterans and victims of war, which is constantly evolving.

Changes in the nature of conflicts and in their repercussions, which can be of a global scale, and the new problems that result from them make the holding of such a conference relevant and important.

Hoping to see you in Paris, I remain at your disposal for any further information you may require.

Yours sincerely,

Mohammed Benjelloun
Secretary General

COOPERATION AGREEMENT

After the establishment of the normal diplomatic relationship between the People's Republic of China and the United States of America, numerous non-government organizations in the two countries have been keeping a good relationship.

An excellent example of such organizations is the China-Burma-India Hump Pilots Association, Inc., which has been maintaining a good relationship with China and has been conducting a variety of friendly activities.

The China-Burma-India Hump Pilots Association and the U.S. Army Volunteers Reserve Association are all organizations under the U.S. veterans organization system. In consideration of the foregoing facts, the China Culture Acceleration Association of Revolution of 1911` Descendant and the U.S. Army Volunteers Reserve Association now determine that they will become brother organizations with the purposes of better understanding and better cooperation between each other. Both will work hard hand-in-hand to achieve the common goal and each others' benefits.
